Vision Doeve Brokers

Former inland cargo barge that has been converted in to a live aboard annex recreational vessel. Until 1980 she has been used in the trade as a sailing and later motor barge transporting reeds between “The Biesbos” and Rotterdam after which she was converted in to its current status quo. She has been equipped with a good whisper generator, inverter and an air conditioner. She is well suited to the canals of Europe, particularly France and Friesland.
